Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimers Establishes Meaningful Partnership with the Richmond SPCA through Thalhimers Gives

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, May 14, 2018 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimers partnered with the Richmond SPCA for the months of March and April through their Thalhimers Gives company initiative focused on increasing community involvement and charitable giving. Through Thalhimers Gives, associates have the opportunity to actively engage in the community by donating financially, providing much-needed supplies, and giving generously of their time to local organizations.

Thalhimers associates gave to the Richmond SPCA, a local non-profit that saves the lives of 4,000 homeless animals each year. The no-kill humane society cares for about 350 dogs and cats daily at its Robins-Starr Humane Center and provides low-cost, high-quality veterinary care to more than 11,300 patients at its Susan M. Markel Veterinary Hospital.

“Sympathy for pets without homes is almost universal, but what they really need is help, and sincere help is what Thalhimer associates have provided through their Thalhimer Gives program,” said Richmond SPCA CEO Robin Robertson Starr. “We and the animals in our care are so grateful for the ways they’ve given, providing financial support, materials that will give comfort to our pets, and the time and talents they’ve volunteered at our humane center.”
