

For Immediate Release

Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Richmond Brokerage Team
Continues to Grow with Recent New Talent

Strengthening #1 Position in the Market

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA – Recent additions of talent to Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer's Richmond office continues to strengthen leadership in the market. Annie O'Connor joins the Retail Services Group as a senior associate specializing in retail sales and leasing; Baker Lynn joins the Office Services Group as an associate specializing in office leasing and sales; Veronica Adams joins Brokerage Services Group as a client coordinator.

Annie was previously an associate with Colliers International, where she specialized in retail sales and leasing with a focus on restaurants. Annie is a member of the Greater Richmond Association for Commercial Real Estate (GRACRE), and the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). Annie is a graduate of The University of South Carolina with a Bachelor degree in Retail Management.

Baker was previously a leasing manager for Allegiancy, LLC where he oversaw leasing efforts for a portfolio consisting of over four million square feet in 43 properties located in six states. Baker is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College where he received his Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Business.

Veronica was previously with Newmark Knight Frank in McLean, Virginia where she worked as a Transaction Services Coordinator. Veronica received her BA in English and Creative Writing from James Madison University.

Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer is ranked number one with 15.6% of the market share in Richmond – two times that of the closest competitor. Additionally, Thalhimer leads the competition ranking number one in all property types; industrial, office and retail. (Source: CoStar Group, Inc. Landlord Rep Company Report, 2Q 2018, Richmond Brokerage Firms)

For Further Information Contact:

Eric B. Robison
Senior Vice President, Capital Markets Group
+1 804 697 3475
eric.robison@thalhimer.com