Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Welcomes New Associate in Richmond Office

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, February 4, 2019 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer announces that Rett Turner, CCIM, SIOR has joined their Richmond office as a first vice president specializing in office agency and tenant representation. Mr. Turner has fifteen years of commercial real estate experience, most recently with Northwood Office LLC, a full-service commercial real estate firm in Charlotte where he focused on leasing office space in Ballantyne, an internationally recognized business community with more than four million square feet of Class A office space. For Ballantyne, Rett assisted in transactions with corporations such as MetLife, ESPN, Snyder's-Lance, LendingTree, Bank of America and Wells Fargo, among many others. Since 2012, when Rett began in Ballantyne, his team has completed over 700 transactions whose lease values are in excess of $800,000,000. Prior to joining Northwood, that acquired Bissell Companies and its Ballantyne portfolio in 2017, Rett worked as a broker with CBRE, in Charlotte. Originally from Richmond, Virginia, Rett graduated from Hampden-Sydney College in 2004.

"We are excited to add Rett Turner to our platform. His experience working with institutional owners and high profile tenants in a market as competitive as Charlotte will benefit our clients tremendously," says Lee Warfield, President and CEO.
