Through Thalhimer Gives, Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Richmond Retail Group Gave Back to Healthcare Workers and First Responders

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, September 28, 2020 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer is proud to have partnered with Richmond-area restaurants to provide lunches for area healthcare workers and first responders in the Richmond metropolitan area.

Thalhimer's Richmond Retail Group coordinated this effort by nominating recipients and partnering with area restaurants and delis to provide lunches to honor healthcare workers and first responders for their dedication and sacrifices on the frontlines of the COVID-19 crisis.

- May: Thalhimer and Boychik's Deli provided 85 boxed lunches to Bon Secours Memorial Regional Medical Center in Mechanicsville
- June: Thalhimer and Chicken Salad Chick provided 80 boxed lunches to Hunter Holmes McGuire VA Medical Center in Richmond
- August: Thalhimer and Charred provided 50 boxed lunches to the Richmond Police Department's 3rd Precinct
- September: Thalhimer and Potbelly Sandwich Shop provided 40 boxed lunches to MCV/VCU Medical Center in Downtown Richmond
- Overall, more than $3,000 was collected by Thalhimer's Richmond Retail Group to give back to area first responders and healthcare workers

"Our Richmond Retail Group was excited to give back to our healthcare workers and first responders during this challenging time while also supporting restaurants throughout our community who make Richmond the special place it is. This initiative was a win-win for all involved," Lee Warfield, President & CEO of Thalhimer.

James Ashby IV, Senior Vice President of the Retail Services Group comments, "Richmond healthcare workers and first responders are an extremely important part of our community. Our Richmond Retail Group was so appreciative to partner with great Richmond restaurants to show these healthcare workers and first responders how much we all appreciate their service and dedication."
