Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Columbia Office Relocates and Welcomes New Associate

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, March 18, 2021 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer is excited to announce their Columbia office has expanded to 3201 Devine Street, Suite 200, in Columbia, South Carolina. The expansion allows the local office to meet its growing staff requirements and also allows for investment sales and property management to have access to office space to continue to service clients around Columbia.

The new location offers additional exposure, easy accessibility to clients, and is walkable to nearby restaurants and shopping. Thalhimer also recently welcomed Drew Kirkpatrick to the commercial brokerage team. Along with Philip Vann, CCIM, the team is excited to provide full-service commercial real estate services to clients in and around Midlands South Carolina. “We were really excited to bring Philip and Drew on board and have already made an impact in the community with several new listing and occupier requirements. We are in great shape to continue servicing our clients around Columbia,” said Managing Broker for Greenville and Columbia, Brian Young, CCIM, SIOR. “We are excited about our new office in Columbia as it offers close proximity and easy access to the office towers of the Central Business District, interstate access to suburban office and industrial parks, and a host of amenities for client entertainment. The Devine Street corridor is the perfect location for Thalhimer as we continue to grow our brokerage team in Columbia,” comments Philip Vann, CCIM.
