Thalhimer congratulates the winners of Richmond Tennis Association Club Challenge – “Thalhimer Challenge”

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, September 30, 2021 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer and the Richmond Tennis Association (RTA) hosted the 28th annual Club Challenge, Thalhimer Challenge, this past weekend, September 24-26, 2021. Salisbury Country Club and Westwood Club served as hosts. Twelve teams competed for the Championship - ACAC, Burkwood, CCV, Dominion, Hermitage, Midlothian Athletic Club, Midlothian Tennis Club, Raintree, Salisbury, Westwood, Willow Oaks, and Woodlake. Each team had players competing at the USTA rated levels from 3.0 to 5.0 and above. The competition was doubles only with two men's, two women's, and one mixed doubles team at each level, except 5.0+ which had one men's and one mixed doubles team. The qualifying play was held the first two days. Six clubs advanced out of qualifying to advance to the finals on Sunday. The tournament winner was the club that accumulated the most points on the final day.

“What a great weekend of tennis! The weather cooperated and Salisbury & Westwood were excellent hosts. Thanks to all who played in the Thalhimer Challenge. Congrats to this year's winners,” said Lee Warfield, President & CEO of Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer.

1st place – CCV

2nd place – Westwood

3rd place – Willow Oaks

“Richmond is recognized as one of America's best tennis cities, and Thalhimer was excited to step up as the lead sponsor and put our name on this showcase tennis event. Beyond the Thalhimer Club Challenge, the Richmond Tennis Association makes a big impact in the RVA community. The RTA is a non-profit organization that supports the growth of tennis including adult tennis events, junior tennis development, wheelchair tennis, and
