Ian Riester Earns ACoM Designation

We are excited to announce ACoM designation news for the Commercial Property Services team. Ian Riester was most recently awarded the ACoM (Accredited Commercial Manager) designation from the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM). The ACoM designation is awarded to managers who have met IREM's rigid requirements in areas of education, experience, and commitment to a code of ethics.

Ian is a proud class of 2015 graduate of Virginia Tech. He manages a mixed portfolio of commercial property types in the Richmond Metropolitan Area.

Congratulations to Ian for continuing to maintain the highest professionalism as real estate professional, and as a Thalhimer associate.
