

Newport News Associates Partner with the Salvation Army for Q4

On November 10th, our Newport News associates volunteered at the Salvation Army in Williamsburg preparing donation boxes so they can be filled with Christmas items for approximately 500 families in the Peninsula area of Hampton Roads this holiday season.

ABOUT THE SALVATION ARMY

At The Salvation Army, we are dedicated to Doing the Most Good. We are a nonprofit organization that works to alleviate human suffering and distress without discrimination. The Salvation Army Potomac Division serves communities throughout Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

<https://salvationarmypotomac.org/williamsburg/>

"The Newport News office spent an afternoon building 500 cardboard boxes in preparation for the Salvation Army's holiday gift giving program. Salvation Army provides a tremendous service to the Williamsburg community, and we were happy to contribute our time."

*-- Chris Rouzie,
Executive Vice President, Regional Manager*

Pictured: Andy Dallas, Erik Conradi, (Dawn's husband Rock), Dawn Griggs, David Machupa, Jaime Reese, Chris Rouzie, Ellis Colthorpe