Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Welcomes Senior Vice President to Lead their Commercial Property Services Group

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, December 1, 2021 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer is pleased to announce that Amy Marsden has joined their Richmond office as senior vice president and will lead Commercial Property Services, which manages over 30 million square feet.

Ms. Marsden most recently served as Senior Area Director for the RMR Group, where she handled a portfolio of nearly ten million square feet in Richmond, Hampton Roads, and Western Virginia and oversaw the property management and project management staff throughout Virginia and Raleigh-Durham, NC. Ms. Marsden's property management expertise of more than 17 years includes affiliations with JLL, AECOM, First Potomac, and CBRE. Ms. Marsden holds a B.A. in English from Ohio State University. She is an active member within the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) Richmond Chapter, Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW), Richmond Chapter, and Greater Richmond Association for Commercial Real Estate (GRACRE).

Lee Warfield, President & CEO of Thalhimer comments, "We are excited to welcome Amy as the new leader of our Commercial Property Services team. She has extensive management experience in all asset classes. Amy has worked directly for institutional owners with substantial assets, and she also has expertise in the 3rd party management sector. Amy has a great track record of team building and performance. I am confident she will add value to our team and create value for our clients."
