Residential Property Services Associates Attend VAMA Annual Conference

Members of the Residential Property Services group recently attended the Virginia Apartment Management Association (VAMA) annual conference in Norfolk. Our team had the opportunity to attend educational sessions focused on improving residential operations, leadership development, and industry innovations. Renee Pulliam, Director of Operations, also served as a panelist for the “Professional Networking: The Why, The What, and The How” session. Our associates appreciated the wonderful event organized by VAMA.

Thalhimer attendees: Curt Carter, Tracey Lowry, Jordan Davenport, Michelle Guthrie, Laura Best, Charles Kleff, Brina Brigham, Jennifer Dezern, Kristen White, Melinda Metzger, Melissa Vambell, and Renee Pulliam.
