Work Experience

Kate joined Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer in 2021 with over ten years' experience in real estate, representing a developer in Richmond, VA and working for architecture firms in Washington, DC and a construction manager in Philadelphia. Kate specializes in office agency representation and works with local and institutional owners as well as national and local, fast-growing tenants. Kate's experience and approach lead her to become a true partner to owners, thoughtfully and creatively negotiating to meet tenant demands while maximizing value for her clients.
