

Virginia Beach and Newport News Associates Partner with the Salvation Army in Q4

The Virginia Beach office raised $250 for the Salvation Army during the 4th quarter of 2022 with monthly jeans day collections. Including the company match, they were able to present a check to them for $500. They also volunteered at the Salvation Army Christmas Depot on December 13th, where registered families picked up the gifts that were sorted and bagged for their children.

The Newport News office volunteered at the Salvation Army Potomac Division on December 19th and assisted registered families in picking up the gifts for their children. They also helped stock the pantry shelves with food items that were recently donated or bought with donated funds.
