Thalhimer Multifamily Announces Promotion

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, March 4, 2024 – Thalhimer Multifamily (TMF) is pleased to announce that Alexis Cumbia has been promoted to Systems Support Coordinator. Ms. Cumbia will be based in the Richmond office.

Ms. Cumbia began her residential property management career in February 2020 as Thalhimer Multifamily's leasing consultant for their Scott's Addition properties. She was promoted to senior property manager of the Scott's Addition portfolio in January 2021 and transitioned into the floating property manager position in April 2022. The floating position introduced her to the diversity of property management and provided priceless experience in training, problem resolution, and project management for her current role as systems support coordinator.

Beth Zinsky, Associate Director of Operations – Systems Support, for Thalhimer Multifamily comments, "Lexi's transition into the Systems Support department will be an asset. Her passion for training and the need to dive into each process and system will be instrumental in the improvements we seek in Thalhimer Multifamily. Her understanding of different learning styles will enable our onsite teams to have someone they can contact as a guiding influence. Her passion for helping each team member grow their knowledge base will be integral to developing our teams into leaders."
