Work Experience

Matt is a member of the Charlottesville brokerage team. Prior to brokerage, he spent the first portion of his career as a chef, entrepreneur and retail operator in NYC, Richmond, Tennessee, and Charlottesville. Before joining the Thalhimer family, he received a master's degree in real estate from Georgetown University. Matt's success lies in his ability to meet operators, investors, and property owners where they are, to understand their needs to and find the best possible solution for everyone.
