Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Welcomes Davis Stoneburner to Commercial Brokerage Services in Roanoke

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA, June 10, 2024 – Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer is pleased to announce that Davis Stoneburner has joined the Roanoke office as a vice president, focusing on industrial sales and leasing.

Before joining Thalhimer, Mr. Stoneburner was Vice President of Operations for Bluestone Resources, Inc., a large private company based in Roanoke, VA with productive and land interests in mining, agriculture, and hospitality. He worked directly with owners and managed critical projects and daily operations for several business lines throughout the Southeastern and Mid-Atlantic United States.

He is a native of Richmond and a graduate of James Madison University and played shortstop for their baseball team. After his senior year, Mr. Stoneburner was picked by the Texas Rangers in the ninth round of the 2007 MLB Draft and played professional baseball for six years for the Rangers and the Cleveland Indians.

Barry L. Ward, First Vice President, comments “We are pleased to have Davis join our team. He has a competitive mindset, a hard-driving work ethic, and proven professional experience handling critical projects in high-pressure situations that will serve his clients well and help the Roanoke office continue growing our business throughout SW Virginia.”
