Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer Welcomes Kristie Inge to the Commercial Brokerage Group in Richmond

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, September 1, 2025: Cushman & Wakefield | Thalhimer is pleased to announce that Kristie Inge has joined Thalhimer's Commercial Brokerage Group in Richmond as a senior vice president. Ms. Inge has over 20 years of experience with Highwoods Properties, specializing in office leasing, and has completed over five million square feet of lease transactions totaling over $475 million in lease revenue. Highwoods recently selected Thalhimer to provide leasing and property management services for its Richmond portfolio comprising more than 2.2 million square feet.

Highwoods owns or has an interest in a 25-building portfolio in the Best Business Districts (BBDs) of Richmond. The majority of the office buildings are located within Innsbrook in the heart of West End Richmond. Highwoods also owns several properties at Stony Point, in Richmond's southside submarket, and One Shockoe Plaza in CBD Richmond.

Ms. Inge is a past president of the Greater Richmond Association for Commercial Real Estate (GRACRE), a former board member, and a former chair of the GRACRE Diversity, Equity & Inclusion committee. She is also a past Board Member and current member of CREW Richmond, and participated in the CREW Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Task Force. She achieved the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation in 2008. Kristie completed both the Leadership Lab program, offered by the Greater Richmond Chamber and Luck Companies, and the Grace Harris Leadership Institute at VCU in 2015. She is a member of the Leadership Metro Richmond (LMR) Quest class of 2016, the VCU Real Estate Circle of Excellence, and the Richmond Real Estate Group. She currently serves on the Industry Advisory Board for the Blackwood Department of Real Estate at Virginia Tech.
